RICHARDSON, Texas (Jan. 22, 2018) — Service King Collision Repair Centers[®], one of the fastest growing brands of high-quality automotive repair service in the U.S., today announced the organization has finalized a deal to partner with Airport Auto Body located in Aurora, Colo. With the announcement, Service King officially expands to 11 convenient repair centers across the state of Colorado while furthering its overall national growth strategy.

Airport Auto Body, located at 2240 Chambers Rd. in Aurora, will immediately transition operations to Service King as part of the deal.

“This is another proud step forward in Service King’s continued growth across the state of Colorado,” said Tracey Hawkins, Service King Area Leader. “It’s our mission to deliver customers a superior repair experience and providing convenient locations is a key component in doing so. We’re proud to partner with the team at Airport Auto Body and look forward to operating this new location with the full support of the Service King family.”

Service King now operates a network of 336 repair centers in 24 states across the U.S., all providing customers a best-in-class experience backed by a lifetime guarantee on all repair work. The company has grown quickly across Colorado, first expanding to the state in 2014. Last year alone, Service King opened five new Colorado locations.

Today, Service King serves greater Denver residents with seven convenient collision repair centers, with an additional footprint of four locations in the greater Colorado Springs area.
